SERVICE AND REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENTS

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

OCTOBER 1933

[This publication is issued monthly for the dissemination of information, instructions, rulings, etc., concerning the work of the Bureau of Animal Industry. Free distribution is limited to persons in the service of the Bureau, establishments at which the Federal meat inspection is conducted, public officers whose duties make it desirable for them to have such information, and journals especially concerned. Others desiring copies may obtain them from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., at 5 cents each or 25 cents a year (foreign, 45 cents). A supply will be sent to each official in charge of a station or branch of the Bureau service, who should promptly distribute copies to members of his force. A file should be kept at each station for reference.]

PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE PACKERS AND STOCKYARDS ACT

Docket no. 417.—In re Sinclair Commission Co., market agency, Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on July 7, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act in that it had failed, neglected, and refused to execute and maintain a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of its obligations incurred as a market agency. On September 30, 1933, respondent admitted the truth of the matters alleged and waived a hearing thereon. On October 19, 1933, respondent was suspended from registration as a market agency for a period of 6 months, with leave during said period to apply for a revocation of this suspension upon showing to the satisfaction of the Secretary that he has filed a reasonable bond, or has furnished some other form of indemnity which will afford substantially equivalent protection. Respondent was also ordered to cease and desist from doing business as a market agency without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond, or furnishing some other satisfactory form of indemnity.

Docket no. 418.—In re Wilmington Provision Co., Inc., Wilmington, Del. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on July 7, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had engaged in certain unfair, unjustly discriminatory, and deceptive practices and devices in commerce, and further alleging that it had conspired, combined, agreed, and arranged with certain parties to engage in the above-mentioned practices in order to give an undue and unreasonable preference or advantage to certain parties. A hearing was held on September 11 and 12, as a result of which the Secretary concluded the respondent had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act as set out in the first allegation. On October 25, 1933, respondent was ordered to cease and desist from using these unfair, unjustly discriminatory, and deceptive practices in commerce. The conspiracy allegation was dismissed.

Docket no. 419.—In re Trunz Pork Stores, Inc., Brooklyn, N.Y. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on July 7, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had engaged in certain unfair, unjustly discriminatory, and deceptive practices and devices in commerce, and further alleging that it had conspired, combined, agreed, and arranged with certain parties to engage in the above-mentioned practices in order to give an undue and unreasonable preference or advantage to certain parties. A hearing was held on September 11 and 12, 1933, and oral argument was made on October 3, 1933, as a result of which the Secretary concluded the respondent had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act as set out in the first allegation. On October 25, 1933, respondent was ordered to cease and desist from using these unfair, unjustly discriminatory, and deceptive practices in commerce. The conspiracy allegation was dismissed.

Docket no. 420.—In re John J. Felin Co., Inc., Philadelphia, Pa. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on July 7, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had engaged in certain unfair, unjustly discriminatory, and deceptive practices and devices in commerce, and further alleging that it had conspired, combined, agreed, and arranged with certain parties to engage in the above-mentioned practices in order to give an undue and unreasonable preference or advantage to certain parties. A hearing was held on September 11 and 12, 1933, as a result of which the Secretary concluded the respondent had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act as set out in the first allegation. On October 25, 1933, respondent was ordered to cease and desist from using these unfair, unjustly discriminatory, and deceptive practices in commerce. The conspiracy allegation was dismissed.

Docket no. 426.—In re A. C. Oefinger Live Stock Commission Co., market agency, San Antonio, Tex. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on August 18, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act in that it had failed, neglected, and refused to execute and maintain a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of its obligations incurred as a market agency. On September 5, 1933, respondent filed a surety bond to secure its obligations and on September 14, 1933, acknowledged receipt of the inquiry, admitted the truth of the matters and things therein alleged, and waived a hearing thereon. On September 30, 1933, respondent was ordered to cease and desist from doing business as a market agency without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of its obligations, or furnishing some other satisfactory plan of guaranty.

Docket no. 427.—In re Rice and Rains, market agency and dealer, Paris and other Kentucky markets. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on August 18, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondents had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act in that they had failed, neglected, and refused to execute and maintain a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of their obligations incurred as a market agency and dealer. On or about August 30, 1933, the respondents acknowledged receipt of the inquiry, admitted the truth of the matters and things therein alleged, and waived a hearing thereon. On October 5, 1933, respondents were suspended from registration as a market agency and dealer for a period of 6 months with leave during said period to apply for revocation of their suspension upon showing to the satisfaction of the Secretary that they have filed a suitable bond. Respondents were also ordered to cease and desist from doing business as a market agency and dealer without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond to secure the performance of their obligations, or without submitting some other form of indemnity which will afford substantially equivalent protection.

Docket no. 430.—In re T. S. Compton & Co., market agency and dealer, Montgomery, Ala. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture on September 6, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had violated the Packers and Stockyards Act in that it had failed, neglected, and refused to execute and maintain a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of its obligations incurred as a market agency and dealer. On September 14, 1933, respondent admitted the truth of the matters alleged and waived a hearing thereon, and on September 16, 1933, filed a bond to secure its obligations. On September 30, 1933, respondent was ordered to cease and desist from doing business as a market agency and dealer without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond to secure its obligations, or without submitting some other form of indemnity which would afford substantially equivalent protection.

RESULTS OF PROSECUTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS

Penalties have been imposed in prosecutions for violations of regulatory laws, as reported to the Bureau, as follows:

Twenty-Eight Hour Law

Pennsylvania Railroad Co. (21 cases), $2,100 penalties.

EXPENSES PAID BY INDIVIDUALS, COMPANIES, ETC.

The attention of inspectors in charge and other employees concerned is directed to instructions under the above heading on page 105 of Service Announcements for November 1913. The text of these instructions is as follows:

"Inspectors in charge and others are instructed that in all cases where expense such as railroad fares, meals, lodging, etc., incident to the work of tuberculin or mallein testing, cleaning, and disinfecting cars or stockyards, or to any other work done by Bureau employees, where such expense is borne by private individuals or by railroads, stockyard companies, or others, an itemized statement of the expense so paid must be forwarded to Washington. Care should be exercised by inspectors in charge to see that only such charges as the Bureau would allow under the fiscal regulations are made. If a bill is rendered for the expense it should be itemized, a copy being forwarded to Washington."

These instructions are still in effect and should be followed in every case where expenses incurred by a Bureau employee are paid by private individuals or companies. It is desired to emphasize particularly that in all cases only such charges are to be assessed against private parties as would be allowed by the Bureau under the fiscal regulations and administrative instructions.

SPECIAL ORDER CONCERNING CATTLE EXHIBITED AT TEXAS STATE FAIR

A special order, designated as B.A.I. Order 342, provides that cattle to be exhibited at the Texas State Fair at Beaumont, Tex., November 2-12, 1933, may be moved to the fair from points outside the quarantined area and returned to their destination without dipping. This order contains restrictions designed to prevent cattle from becoming infested with ticks en route to or at the fair.
